

Informational sessions about the Stretch Code—for Builders, Realtors, Property Owners and Interested Residents in the Pioneer Valley

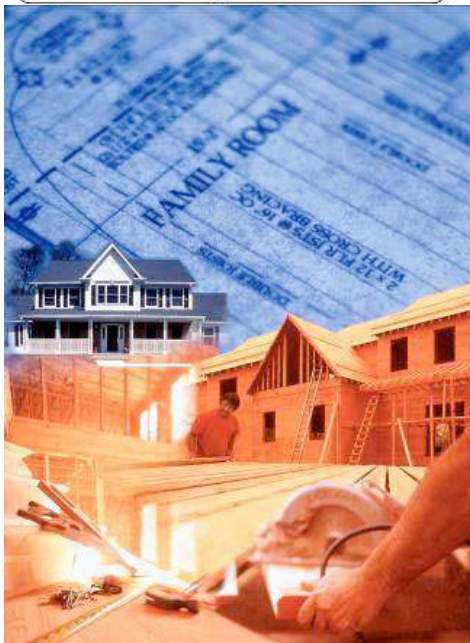

Nine communities in the Pioneer Valley, and many others across western Massachusetts, have committed to working towards being designated a “Green Community” through the State’s Green Communities Program.

The Green Communities Program encourages reductions in energy use through 5 criteria. One of the 5 criteria is the adoption of the “Stretch Code” to the Massachusetts Building Code, which requires a greater energy efficiency for residential and commercial buildings.

These workshops are FREE and will answer your questions about what this amendment means for you.
