

New England's Knowledge Corridor

Innovation runs through it.

FEATURING:

A Plan for Sustainable Economic Prosperity

We'll unveil a transformative action agenda for the region, the result of a three-year project funded by a multimillion-dollar U.S. HUD grant.

Our Region's New Branding Campaign

Get an insider's look at the region's new identity and value proposition!

Update on Knowledge Corridor Happenings

Developments across the interstate Connecticut River Valley region.

"InternHero" Awards

Our annual recognition of top students, colleges and companies.

Bold Vision.
Strategic Investments.
Innovation Unchained!

2014 "State of the Region" Conference

Friday, June 13 ✨ The Sheraton, Bradley Airport
7:45 a.m., networking ✨ 8:25 - 10:45 a.m., program

To Register Click Here or Visit: www.KnowledgeCorridor.org

Information: Doug Fisher, 860-729-5348 / dfishersolutions@gmail.com

Keynote: Achieving Regional Success

Steven Wray

Executive Director,

The Economy League of Greater Philadelphia

Steven Wray works with a board of more than 60 senior private sector leaders from companies and institutions in three states. He oversees "World Class Greater Philadelphia," leading its research, strategy and civic convening activities. Under his leadership, the Economy League has won national, state and regional awards and has developed groundbreaking initiatives like IssuesPA, Campus Philly, and Graduate! Philadelphia. Steve is a former Ford Foundation Fellow of the American Chamber of Commerce Executives' Regional Sustainable Development program. He is a graduate of Duke University and earned an MS in Public Management and Policy from Carnegie Mellon University.

This program is brought to you at no charge, thanks to these generous sponsors of New England's Knowledge Corridor!

New Haven – Hartford – Springfield – Greenfield:
connected by river, rail, highway, airports and more than 375 years of history!

